

On the cover

The most plausible way to clean up the rainbow nation is to back Cyril Ramaphosa: leader, page 9. He has brought South Africa back from the brink. But even if his party wins the general election in May, he faces a daunting task. See our special report, after page 40

• After Mueller, what next? Now that the special counsel's report is public, here is what Congress should do with it: leader, page 10. For the time being, the president is above the law, page 19

• Huawei: Britain's artful compromise Its calibrated approach to dealing with the Chinese telecoms giant is a model for other countries, page 10. How Huawei became mired in political controversy: briefing, page 16. Growing foreign suspicion is hemming in China Inc's rising global stars, page 55

• Oil's threat to global growth Rising oil prices could yet prevent a rebound in the world economy, page 12. America is seeking to reshape oil markets, page 61
