On the cover
The triumph of the Brexit campaign is a warning to the liberal international order: leader, page 9. Britain has its first taste of life unmoored from Europe: leader, page 10. A special section on the political and economic consequences of Britain’s vote to divorce from the EU, pages 17–22. Britain increasingly looks like two countries, divided over globalisation: Bagehot, page 52. Everyone feels the pain of Britons in Brussels. But the sympathy won’t last: Charlemagne, page 47
